Here at Randstad, we offer long-term job security, purpose, strong connection to our values and mission, consistent learning and development and genuine career advancement opportunities.

You will enjoy working with an extremely driven, positive and passionate team, who share common goals and work together to deliver successful outcomes.

Main Responsibilities:

- Full responsibility of the 360 recruitment process
- Candidate and client management
- Maintain an effective database of clients and candidates
- Utilising a variety of platforms including social media, LinkedIn and job boards to attract talent.
- Preparing contract and onboarding documentation
- Undertaking negotiations of terms and conditions of employment, and examining and resolving disputes and grievances
- Candidate sourcing and screening in line with job requirements and job briefs.
- Guide candidates throughout the recruitment process

About you

To be successful you will have a minimum of two years previous recruitment experience locally or overseas and you will be passionate about providing HR/recruitment solutions for clients. Ideally you will have experience in business development as well as superior candidate management. You will be a positive person and a team-player with exceptional interpersonal skills to build and sustain strong internal and external business relationships. We're searching for high achiever with a competitive nature and a desire to succeed in a sales environment. In return we offer a fun, supportive environment, a culture of learning, trust and transparency, competitive salary and a healthy work-life balance.

Position: Full Time

Salary: $80,000 - $100,000 + superannuation

Please note only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.

At Randstad, we are passionate about providing equal employment opportunities and embracing diversity to the benefit of all. We actively encourage applications from any background.
