Full job description

Your new company

Hays Legal have partnered with a fantastic 'new-law' firm as they look to add a number of lawyers to the team. This firm was founded a few years ago and has undergone significant growth and has earned a fantastic reputation. They are focused on doing things differently and primarily work with start-ups, entrepreneurs and fast-growth SME's.

Your new role

Working within a close knit team of high performing Lawyers, you will be given the autonomy to manage the Commercial Litigation practice which consists of a variety of interesting and challenging matters.

What you'll need to succeed

- Australian legal qualifications and a current Australian practising certificate.
- 3+ years' post-admission experience, primarily in commercial litigation.
- Ability to manage matters autonomously
- A positive, can-do attitude and an entrepreneurial spirit.

What you'll get in return

This is an exciting opportunity to do law differently. The firm is growing at a rapid rate so there are fantastic opportunities for progression. There is also respect for work-life-balance and flexibility.
